Dues Increase Is Announced

At a recent meeting, the board of directors of the Potomac State College Alumni Association, Inc., reluctantly voted to raise the membership dues for the Association by $1 in each category. Beginning July, dues will be $3.50 per alumnus or $5.00 where both husband and wife are alumni.

The board regrets this decision, but notes that it is necessary to meet rising costs in printing and mailing.

The board meets monthly on the first Tuesday for a luncheon session at the Potomac Motel.

Donald Moran Named Head Cage Coach

Donald E. Moran, Westernport, has been named head basketball coach for 1976-77. He replaces Larry G. Bolyard, who will continue as associate professor of physical education.

A graduate of the University of Maryland, Moran played on its varsity team four years. Following graduation, he coached the freshman team to an 11-1 season. Moran then played and coached during a two-year stint with the U.S. Air Force.

After military service, he played two years of professional basketball in the Eastern League, being drafted by the Detroit Pistons in 1956.

Assisting him will be Terry

Winifred Newman, Ralph Bean Receive First Alumni Awards

Miss Newman

Miss Winifred H. Newman '26 of Charleston and Ralph J. Bean '32 of Moorefield were named the first recipients of the newly established alumni awards and were honored at the Homecoming Banquet, Saturday, Oct. 25, 1975, at the Potomac Motel.

Miss Newman, a native of Oakland, Md., has spent some 40 years as an educator. For 29 years (1940-69) she was assistant superintendent of Kanawha Co. schools in Charleston. Gov. Arch Moore, in July, 1972, designated her as a Distinguished West Virginian. In 1970 she received an award for distinguished service from the American Assn. of School Administrators. Since her retirement in 1969, she has continued to serve her fellowman in a variety of ways.

After receiving her Alumni Achievement Award, Miss Newman said, "I accept this award with deep humility. I don't think I deserve it."

In making the award,

Homecoming Set For Oct. 16

Saturday, October 16, has been designated for the annual Homecoming and Parents' Day Celebration. We hope you'll reserve this date immediately and plan to join your friends on a nostalgic visit to your Alma Mater.

Included in the day's highlights will be football in the afternoon and the Alumni Banquet that evening at the Potomac Motel at which the awards for Distinguished Service and Alumni Achievement will be given for the second year.

Foundation Also Administers Four Other Awards

The Board of Directors of the Potomac State College Alumni Foundation, Inc., approved the granting of $3,350 in scholarships at Potomac State for 1976-77 at its quarterly meeting, Tuesday, May 11.

Dr. James W. Courrier, Sr., president, announced that the number of alumni scholarships has been increased from three to four next year worth $400 each.

The Alumni Foundation makes awards based on the income from its trust fund. In addition to the Alumni awards, the Foundation also administers the McKee, Anderson, and Lough Memorial Scholarships.

Dr. Courrier also noted that the Kirkland and Beatrice McKee Memorial Scholarship would provide two awards worth $400 each in place of last year's one award.

The Orval J. Anderson Memorial Scholarship was increased from $200 to $300 per year. It is awarded to a sophomore English major.

The Dean Frank Mauzy Memorial Scholarship and History Award established by alumnus Sidney H. Harris '32 of Pittsburgh, Pa., is also managed by the Foundation. Mr. Harris provides a $450 scholarship and also a history award of $50 to an outstanding student in that field.

The Dana G. and Viola U. Lough Memorial Scholarship remains at $200 for the coming year. It is awarded to an athlete.

Contributions to any of the above funds are welcomed at the Alumni Office and are tax deductible.

Members of the Foundation board in addition to President Courrier are Mrs. Paul J. Davis, vice-president; Prof. Kenneth F. Haines, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ty Epling, Mrs. W. Ward Harvey, Mrs. James Howard, James E. Taylor, Glen A. Ryan, Edwin Jordan, and Dr. A.G. Slonaker, dean of Potomac State College.

Six Members of College Faculty Get Promotions

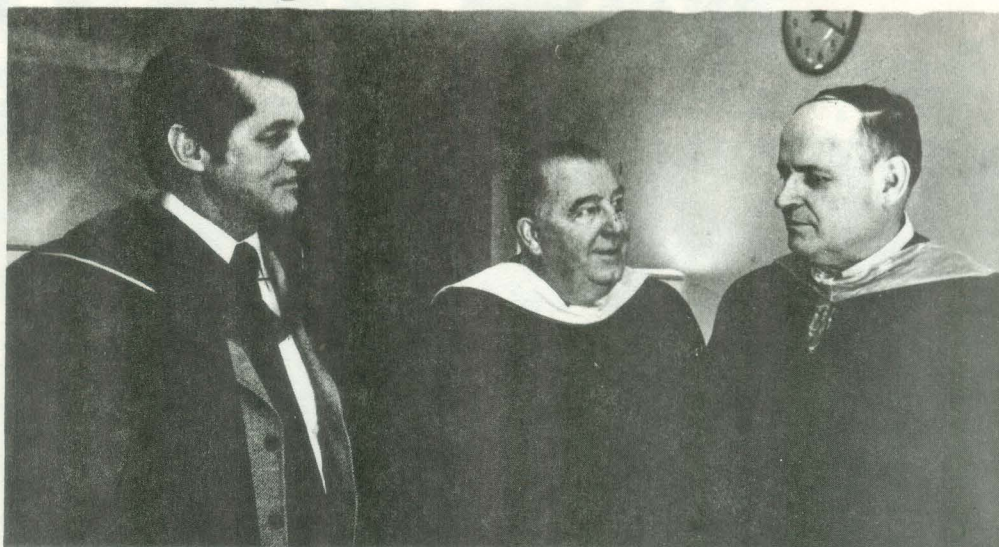

Six members of the faculty have been granted promotions in rank by the West Virginia Board of Regents.

Receiving the designation of full professor were Kenneth M. Malone, agriculture; Jasper T. Morris, physical science; Margaret E. Rafter, physical education; and Dr. Charles D. Whitehill, music.

Prof. Rafter will, in addition, be granted Professor Emeritus status after her retirement effective July 1.

Promoted from assistant to associate professor were Lester K. Beavers, sociology; and Dr. Robert W. Naylor, Chemistry.

Principals at PSC Commencement

Principals at the 73rd annual commencement exercises were, 1. to r., Dr. Jay Barton, provost for instruction and official representative of Dr. James G. Harlow, president, West Virginia University; United States Senator Jennings Randolph (D-WV), speaker; and Dr. A. Gordon Slonaker, dean of Potomac State College.

Death Claims Staff Employee, Four Former Faculty Members

Death has claimed four former faculty members and a member of this year's staff.

Mrs. Anne Paulsen, secretary in the Counseling Center, died March 17, 1976, when fire engulfed her home near Burlington. She and her husband, Roland, who also perished in the blaze, came to Keyser from New York in the fall of 1974 following his retirement.

Prof. John O. Maiden, 58, died suddenly Oct. 8 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona. He and his wife Evelyn had visited friends in Keyser last summer enroute to their daughter Judith's graduation in Georgia. Maiden taught psychology and coached the baseball team from 1947 to 1956 when he resigned. He was employed as a teacher in Arizona at the time of his death.

Word has been received from Columbia, South Carolina, of the death of Mrs. Roberta (Rosenthal) Muller. She had taught in Mannington, Williamstown, and Parkersburg before coming to Potomac State where she taught secretarial science from 1936 to 1941.

Mrs. Alexine (Peggy) Kimball Howard of Berkeley, California, informed the Alumni Office of the death of her husband Prof. Averett Howard. Prof. Howard served in the English department at Potomac State from 1929-1938 and was sponsor of Theta Sigma Chi Fraternity. He retired as professor emeritus from George Washington University in 1958.

Prof. Raymond L. Dennison, who headed the agriculture program at Potomac State from 1931 to 1953, died Feb. 15 in Bridgeport following an extended illness. Known as "R.L." he combed the rural areas of the state, encouraging young people to get into college. At one point in time, well over 50 of all vocational agriculture teachers in West Virginia were Prof. Dennison's former students.

Paving Is Slated For Parking Lot

Tentative plans are under consideration to pave the student parking lot and renovate Davis Hall this summer.

Paving the parking lot has top priority. In addition parking lines will be painted to provide spaces for approximately 115 cars.

152 Are Awarded Degrees May 9

Potomac State College conferred 152 Associate in Arts degrees at the 73rd annual commencement exercises Sunday, May 9, in the Church-McKee Arts Center Auditorium.

The Honorable Jennings Randolph, senior United States Senator from West Virginia, was the speaker.

A reception for graduates, parents, faculty, and friends was held on the Arts Center patio following the ceremony.

Several Alumni Visit Alma Mater

Among the visitors to the Alumni Office have been Raymond H. Hedrick '75, while on leave from training at the Great Lakes Naval Base; LTC and Mrs. Carl Horner '43 (Mary K. Allman); Mrs. Virginia Linn (Johns) Sandberg, '39, Napa, Calif.; Mary Evelyn Tyler '45 Lehigh Acres, Fla.; Ernest D. Helmick, M.D. '42 of New Cumberland, Pa.

Also on campus were Fred Koelz '06 of Burlington and Dr. Troy M. Currence '19 of Rochester, Minnesota.

Davis Hall renovations include in order of priority bathrooms, fire escapes, new roof, and improvement of rooms and lounge areas.

'75 - LEE ANN (ALKIRE) GABLE is employed at the Professional Center, Hagerstown, Md.

'75 - MARGUERITE R. LOWEN is secretary to the director of developmental funds at Morris Harvey College, Charleston.

Raschella Will Return, Assume Admissions Job

John Raschella has been appointed director of admissions at the college effective July 1.

Raschella is currently serving as director of finance and business affairs at Shepherd College. He had previously been business manager at Potomac State from 1956 to 1969.

A Keyser native, he is a graduate of Potomac State and West Virginia University, majoring in accounting. He holds a master of science degree in management from Frostburg State College.

College Initiates Divisional Setup

Potomac State College switched from a departmental to a divisional system at the beginning of this academic year. Division One, Arts and Humanities, is chaired by Dr. Charles D. Whitehill, music. Dr. Dallas B. Shaffer, political science, heads Division Two, Social Sciences and Education. Chairman of Division Three, Natural and Physical Sciences and Mathematics, is Prof. W. E. Micahel, biology. Prof. Oscar H. Gustafson, agriculture, heads Division Four, Applied Sciences, Career and Technical Programs.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Dr. James Champion, associate professor of physics, received a National Science Foundation Travel Grant, and with an assist from the college, attended a NATO conference at Les Arcs, France last summer. The meeting dealt with technology transfer.

Dr. Burtron Davis '53 and Dr. Robert Naylor, associate professors of chemistry, and three alumni have completed research on "Paraffin Dehydrocyclization." Their discoveries have been published in the international Journal of Catalysis. Former students assisting in the research were Gary A. Westfall '72, John Pezzanite '72, and John Watkins '73, all chemistry majors.

Speakers at the annual fall and spring convocations were Dr. James G. Harlow, president, WVU, and Dr. John C. Wright, vice chancellor of the West Virginia Board of Regents.

Lysander Dudley, director of the WVU Foundation, addressed the March meeting of the board of directors of the Alumni Foundation, Inc. Members of the Association board were guests.

James M. Hoey, coordinator of the Computer Center, announced that Potomac State has become a member of a statewide computer system, the W.Va. Network for Educational Telecomputing. Model 11-40 from the Digital Equipment Corp. has been installed, doubling in speed and memory sizes the capabilities of the Center.

Dr. Burtron H. Davis '53 will present a paper at the San Juan, Puerto Rico, meeting of the American Chemical Society in June.

Prof. William H. Gallier, history, will attend the University of Wisconsin this summer on a grant of $2,250 from the National Endowment for the Humanities. He will study the history of India.

Portrait of Staggers Is Unveiled

Among those taking part in the unveiling of the portrait of Congressman Harley O. Staggers '24, Keyser, that will hang in the Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, are 1-r, Speaker of the House Carl Albert, Secretary of Transportation William Coleman, Mrs. Staggers, Secretary of Commerce Elliot Richardson, and Congressman Staggers. The portrait will hang permanently in the main hearing room of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, which Mr. Staggers, a former Potomac State Coach, has chaired since 1966.

Academic Year Marks Several Personnel Changes For 1975-76

Several personnel changes have been made at the college during this year.

Dr. Gordon Mon was appointed associate professor of engineering and staff engineer. Dr. Mon received both his bachelor's degree and doctorate from the University of California. He earned his master's degree at Stanford University.

Dr. Trevor A. Owen was named associate professor of English. Dr. Owen comes to us from Davis and Elkins College. He has previously taught at Hampton Institute; The American University in Cairo, Egypt; Gustavus Adolphus College, and Wartburg College. He earned bachelor's, master's, and doctorate from the University of Minnesota.

Gary Seldomridge was appointed instructor in mathematics. Mr. Seldomridge earned his bachelor's degree at Davis and Elkins College and completed his master's at West Virginia University.

Named head resident of Memorial Hall was Edward Dombrowski, who also served as assistant football coach and part-time instructor in physical education. He is a graduate of Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Miss Nancy Shaw of Indianapolis, Indiana, assumed the position of activities coordinator. Miss Shaw is a graduate of Indiana University with a master's degree in health education.

John J. "Jake" Jurek succeeded Paul M. Clawson as manager of the dining room and the Student Union operated by ARA Services. Mr. Clawson was promoted to Director of Dining Services at Wheeling College.

Mrs. Nancy Oates, associate professor of biology, went on leave of absence for the second semester. Replacing her was a Potomac State alumnus, Robert Williams, a native of Keyser, who attended here from 1969-71. He is a graduate of Fairmont State College and earned a master's in plant pathology at West Virginia University.

Dennis Carpenter, student information coordinator, is serving as acting director of admissions following the resignation of James M. Huffman of Beckley.

paid tribute to her "invaluable contribution to the cause of quality education at the local, state, and national levels." He added, "She demanded excellence of herself; she expected it of others."

"This is an occasion of reciprocal awards," he said, "for while we honor this lady for her services to mankind, she by those services, brings honor to her college and each of us."

Mr. Bean is a practicing attorney and senior member of the law firm of Bean and Hamilton. He served as president of our Alumni Association in 1944-45 and again from 1956-58. He is currently on the college advisory board formed in 1972 and had been a member and former president of the WVU Board of Governors, which controlled Potomac State as well.

Attorney Bean has had a distinguished career in the West Virginia Senate, serving as president of that body at the 1953, 1955, 1957, and 1959 sessions. Between 1970 and 1973 he was active in spearheading the drive to keep Potomac State a part of West Virginia University and out of the "community college ranks."

In receiving the Distinguished Service Award, he too expressed his humility at being singled out for this honor. He asked each alumnus present to examine his conscience to see "if there is not more each one of us can do on behalf of this college we say we love."

In presenting the award to Mr. Bean, Alumni Association President William J. Oates, also a State Senator, said he had long been an admirer "of this man of great character."

The Alumni Achievement Award is made annually to an alumnus of the college who has distinguished himself in his career and has involved himself in civic activities and humanitarian causes. Selection is made by a committee of alumni chaired by the president of the Association.

The Distinguished Service Award is to be made annually for exceptional service and dedication to Potomac State College. The recipient does not need to be an alumnus of the college. The selection

Two Members of Faculty Retire, Honored By College Social Club

Prof. Rafter

Two members of the faculty have elected to take early retirement this year. They are Prof. Margaret E. Rafter, physical education, and Mrs. Bonnie N. Harvey, biology.

Both women were honored at the spring dinner of the college Social Club, Saturday, May 1, at the Potomac Motel.

Prof. Rafter, at the close of the spring term, completed 24 years of service, having joined the faculty in the fall of 1952. She is also an alumna of the college, Class of '36, and has been a supporter of the work of both the Alumni Association and Foundation.

A native of Keyser, she plans to enjoy lots of golfing and fishing.

Mrs. Harvey joined the staff in 1966. Prior to Potomac State, Mrs. Harvey had taught 15 years in the public schools of the State. She has served as a member of the Alumni Foundation board for the last two years.

The wife of retired Methodist minister Wilson Ward Harvey, she takes a keen interest in the local historical society.

The Harveys have two children, John '65, a teacher at Keyser High School, and Susan, wife of Dr. Ronald Haggerty '68, Fort Ashby dentist.

Many Return For Homecoming, Participate In Varied Events

Perfect weather greeted former students and parents as they gathered on campus for the 1975 Homecoming-Parents' Day celebration, Saturday, October 25.

The Homecoming Parade, with nine divisions and 56 units, was the largest ever sponsored by the college.

Twenty-five hundred fans were at Stayman Field in the afternoon to watch the Catamount football team blank the Community College of Baltimore 16-0.

Climaxing the day's events was the Alumni Association's annual banquet held Saturday evening at the Potomac Motel. The newly established Alumni Awards were committee is composed of both faculty and alumni and is chaired by the Dean of the College.

presented to Miss Winifred Newman '27, Charleston, and Attorney Ralph J. Bean '32 Moorefield. (See separate story.)

Members of the Classes of 1925 and 1950 held reunions, and four of the five members of the Alexander family who attended Potomac State were present.

In a brief business meeting, Mrs. Ann (Hollen) Pamer '33 and Richard R. Welch '58 were elected to the board of directors of the Alumni Association for two-year terms.

Following the banquet, the James Miltenberger Jazz Trio from West Virginia University presented a program at the Church-McKee Arts Center.

Three Students Die In Accident Following Dance

Nineteen-year-old Warren Bernatsky, one of those injured in the April 10 accident which claimed three lives, left Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, by ambulance April 17 to be transferred to a New York hospital near his home. He will undergo a series of operations.

Killed were Cheryl Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Haney of 113 Wellsley Street in Kingwood, and John Clime, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clime of 5 Seminole Ave. in Massapequa, N.Y. Both were sophomores at Potomac State.

Also killed was 19 year-old Tanya McCaw, a sophomore math major at Frostburg State College.

The accident occurred in the early hours of the morning along U.S. 220 north of McCoole, Md., after the two couples left the Military Ball held earlier Friday night. Police say a car driven by Gary Smith, 34, of Keyser, apparently crossed the center line and struck the car driven by Bernatsky head on.

Smith is listed in guarded condition at Memorial Hospital in Cumberland.

Miss Haney, 19, was a member of the ROTC program and Sigma Phi Omega Honor Society. She was president of Phi Beta Lambda, business fraternity, and a member of WAA, which she represented last fall in the Homecoming court. She was an executive secretarial science major.

John Clime, 18, was vice-president of the Newman Club and a member of the ROTC program, from which he had won marksmanship awards; he belonged to the Rifle Team; Roth Military Honorary Society and Davis Hall Dorm Council. Clime was instrumental in forming the pep group named Fi Batar Kapper. He was a political science major.

Funeral services were at the Wesley United Methodist Church in Kingwood, April 13, for Miss Haney and at St. Martin of Tours Roman Catholic Church in Amityville, N.Y., April 14 for John Clime.

Award Honoring Loughs Shared By Two Students

David Trevisan, wide receiver on the 1975 Catamount football squad, received the first award from the Dana G. and Viola U. Lough Memorial Scholarship Fund. The award was for $100 per semester this year. Trevisan, from Newtown Square, Pa., also received the Dana G. Lough Football Award at the All-Sports Banquet in April.

Named recipient of the scholarship for the second semester was Mark Lambert of Richmond, Va. He was given the award after Trevisan received a W. Va. Board of Regents Scholarship including out-of-state tuition costs, and in keeping with college policy, he could hold only one award.

The Lough Memorial Scholarship is placed in a trust fund with only the income from the trust being used for scholarships. The amount of the award will increase as further contributions are made.

Citizen of Year Award Is Given To Mrs. Church

Mrs. Katharine M. Church has joined the list of Keyser Citizens of the Year, as sponsored by the Keyser Kiwanis Club.

She was named for the 1975 honor at the May 5 dinner meeting at the Rosemont Restaurant.

Following the presentation by Assoc. Dean James T. Handlan of PSC, she was presented a corsage by her husband former PSC prexy Ernest E. Church, himself a winner of the award in 1972.
